Sea oats are native to Brevard County's coastal communities. They stabilize sand quickly by developing an extensive root and rhizome system that holds onto sand and slows down erosion. Sea oats also have the ability to build dunes as the grassy foliage and tall seed plumes catch windblown sand. This trapped sand builds up at the plant base, stimulating the plant to grow taller. As this process is repeated, a healthy dune is formed. The dunes, which are an important feature of our coastal ecosystem, protect upland property during wind and storm events and provide habitat for wildlife.
